Ambassador Restaurant

Minutes

- I. Welcome, Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance: Allison Gipe opened the meeting following prayer, led by KC Rothschof and pledge of allegiance, led by Larry Buehler.
- II. Review of December 3, 2018 General Meeting Minutes: Minutes were reviewed.
- III. Committee Reports:
 - a. Ambassadors Report – Larry Buehler reported that he missed the annual Christmas Party. He stated the club hasn't been too busy because of the holidays.
 - b. Student Chamber Committee Report – Julie Maytum reported that the group wrapped their baked goods for their Traveling Bake Sale at their last meeting; they sold out of baked goods. President Bri Vera has formed a sub-committee to plan, organize and implement a 'penny carnival' in March of this year. Larry Buehler mentioned that the group has mentioned doing a Valentine's gift basket raffle.
 - c. Rodeo Committee Report – Jim Quimby reminded everyone that the Annual Rodeo Dance and Draw Down will be on January 26 and tickets are available. He also mentioned that the Progressive Gun Draw tickets are good for four more drawings.
 - d. OPSU Report - Dr. Blanton said the shooting sports complex contract is moving forward. Also, they dedicated the football field. He reported that OPSU will be starting soccer in the fall and so they are looking for a soccer coach. The new football coach, Bob Majeski, has been hired and is here. Dr. Blanton announced the Panhandle Promise Scholarship, designed for students majoring in education, is estimated to graduate 5 students per year. Students who are awarded the scholarship agree to teach at least 2 years in a public school in Oklahoma. The scholarship picks up any costs not covered by other scholarships, grants, etc., so they receive a free education.
